

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS RECOGNIZES LACDMH VALOR PROGRAM FOR ITS ACHIEVEMENTS

The Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health's (LACDMH) Veterans and Loved Ones Recovery (VALOR) program was recognized by the Board of Supervisors at its Tuesday, August 11th meeting at the Kenneth Hahn Hall of Administration in downtown Los Angeles.

Fourth District Supervisor Don Knabe presented LACDMH with a scroll, praising VALOR's selection as a 2015 winner of the National Association of Counties Achievement Award. The award recognizes innovative county programs that serve as national models.

The VALOR program aims to serve the veterans in Los Angeles County that may need mental health services, benefit establishment, employment and education assistance, peer support, collaboration with other veteran service organizations, referrals for children and family support, and housing.
